

MÁLAGA

THE SEA BATHES THIS TOWN AND GIVES IT ITS DEFINING FEATURES: FRIED FISH, VIBRANT COLOURS, AND SALTY AIR. NATURE AND HISTORY MIX IN ONE OF THE OLDEST TOWNS IN EUROPE.

MUST

CAFÉ BAR MERCADO ATARAZANAS

The best fried fish in the bar in the Atarazana market.

EL REFECTORIUM CATEDRAL

Impeccable presentation, exquisite ingredients, and a top-notch wine cellar. This restaurant, across from the cathedral, is divine.

TABERNA UVEDOUBLE

Delicious food to enjoy at the bar or on high stools, which bring you a bit closer to heaven.

KGB DE KIOSKO GARCÍA

A gastrobar serving tapas made by a Michelin-star chef.

LA COCINA MÁLAGA

Local produce in a modern tapas restaurant with an informal atmosphere. You'll leave in a good mood.

BODEGA BAR EL PIMPI

Different rooms and patios. Good wines. A party and flamenco area, views of the citadel... A bar with multiple personality disorder that you will be crazy about.

BODEGUITA EL GALLO

Authentic Andalusian taverns envy Bodeguita del Gallo: the palace of croquettes and huevos rotos (fried eggs with potatoes).

EL MESÓN DE CERVANTES

A Quixotic spot in Málaga where you can enjoy many designer tapas and great wines. Delicious.

LA MOLLETERÍA 1796

A stronghold of good ingredients, this restaurant near La Malagueta will serve you anything in MOLLETE bread. A new concept of ARTISANAL fast food.

BARABOO

Gin&Tonic is more than a cocktail at Baraboo. Taste its endless varieties (not all in the same day, of course).

GO

MÁLAGA CATHEDRAL

A Renaissance jewel built on top of the old mosque. Queen Isabella and King Ferdinand, as good Catholics, ordered it to be built a few days after taking the town in 1487.

PICASSO MUSEUM

285 works that showcase the innovations of Málaga's favourite son.

ALCAZABA

An amazing Muslim citadel on the slopes of mount Gibralfaro, a mountain crowned by Gibralfaro Castle, an old Phoenician building that Abd-ar-Rahman III turned into a fortress (although it was not enough against Isabella and Ferdinand). On a clear day you can see the Rif mountain range, in Africa.

ROMAN THEATRE

At the foot of the citadel, the Roman theatre built by Caesar Augustus in the 1st century was discovered just 60 years ago. A long time playing hide and seek, isn't it?

PLAZA DE LA MERCED

Picasso and other famous locals were born on this square. Perhaps there is something in the air...

CALLE MARQUÉS DE LARIOS

300 metres long and almost 150 years old, this commercial street is the fifth most expensive street in Spain.

LA MALAGUETA BEACH

Only 10 minutes away from the centre of the town, you will always have a spot for your towel in La Malagueta, sometimes under a palm tree. Walking along the beach at night is always a good idea. Particularly if the company's good.

BAÑOS DEL CARMEN

A former spa, now semi-abandoned and overgrown, where you can take a bath, watch the sunset, or have a drink in its terrace bar. Dereliction only gives this place its personality and magic. Brutal.
